

Establish an International Chamber of Commerce Development Center

We plan to form a joint venture with the International Chambers of Commerce (ICC) as a means of opening a mixed development center in each major city of the world in conjunction with local real estate partners. Ideas being considered include, but are not limited to merge clubs, conventions, expositions, retail and "expat" service apartments together with hotels. These ICC centers will be unique venues in each host city.