

Khurram Shroff

Khurram Shroff is a graduate of the University of Indianapolis (Indiana, USA) with a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in marketing and Master in Business Administration (MBA) from the John Vianney Institute, Germany.

Khurram has attended several post-graduate courses at the University of Pennsylvania (UPENN), Georgia State University (GSU), Dalton College, IBA and PIM Institute. To date, his extensive career has focused mainly on human resources, technology and marketing. He has been niche experience and involvement with eMag Solutions, an information technology company in Atlanta, Georgia, and with Prudential Avery & Associates as an International Relocation Director.

Khurram Shroff has also worked at the United Nations and has consulted on business issues with the Pakistan Government, the Kuwait Government and the Dubai Education Ministry. He is an energetic, dynamic individual with about a decade of marketing, international relations, human resources and technology experience.

Also known as "KB", Khurram holds a State of Indiana credential as a certified Real Estate Consultant. He is a member of the Wharton Finance Club, All Alumni Association, U of I Alumni Association, Pakistan Student Association, Indian Cultural Exchange International Relocation Club, Defence Authority Club and the Karachi Golf Club. He has been an independent consultant since 1999. He joined SASI Foundation in 2002 as a Sponsor member to specifically augment Social Entrepreneurship projects and coordinate the Foundation's activities.