

Sasi Wealth Origination Consulting Services

Sasi Wealth Origination Consulting Services (SWOCS) is an established Canadian firm, owned by Mr. Firoz Shroff. SWOCS is a specialized planning firm that specializes in wealth origination and strategic wealth enhancement.

Mr. Shroff founded the company shortly after he immigrated to Canada with his family in 1992. His diverse business experience and contacts are applied for the advantage of business, institutional, and individual clients who need customized assistance expanding global businesses and services. The firm is exceptionally agile and adept at planning expansion of global corporate structures, developing efficient international tax strategies, international financing models, and free floating currency instruments.

The ultimate objective of SWOCS is to provide know-how, experience, knowledge and practical solutions to assist clients to export their assets from emerging markets to Canada or the United States.
