

Career Advice

Firoz Shroff is pleased to offer a formal organizational mentoring program that has been valuable to entry-level professionals seeking leadership development experience.

While mentoring experiences can help motivate individuals and develop new skills, a formal program can direct interested individuals through a broader range of experiences. Firoz Shroff offers wisdom and mentoring that has rational, practical and logical attributes. He mentors individuals belonging diverse communities and countries with an objective to create social wealth and grow as perpetual entities with social entrepreneurial elements and components.

Firoz welcomes inquiries from individuals who have entrepreneurial ideas, projects and opportunities as partners. He participates by providing financial and other resources which include intellectual assets, commercial sense and experience with wisdom.

He has interest in the following projects: