

Israil A. Menai

Chairman Emeritus

Israil A. Menai is an experienced legal consultant and possesses highly developed communications and facilitation skills. His approach and style are practical and informal style and are the result of a wide range of industrial and commercial experience and a thorough knowledge of business theory and the law. During his storied career, he has administered and negotiated client transactions valued in nine figures and has saved uncounted expense for clients by encouraging the discovery of solutions to conflict that avoided litigation.

He is the Chairman of Legal and Corporate Affairs Board, Chairman of the Investors and Shareholders Committee, Member of the International Investment Advisory Board, Finance, Audit and Investment Due Diligence Committees of various client companies.

Mr. Menai holds advanced degrees in Law and International Affairs from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Harvard University (1954) and has attended courses in International Organization, American, Russian and Eastern Diplomacy, International Trade and Monetary Theories, International Law held at Peace Palace in The Hague (Holland) under the auspices of International Court of Justice.